Anatomy of a biostatistician

NOVEMBER 19, 2008, MH320

Abstract: I will talk about my current position as a biostatistician for a biotechnology company and what went into getting me there so that you can see if you are interested in pursuing such a career and, if you are, how you may go about it.

Background: No background is required at all. Undergraduates at all levels, and in all majors (especially statistics, biology, and bioinformatics) are encouraged to attend.

About the speaker: Amy Kapp received a Ph.D. in statistics and an M.S. in biology from Stanford University in 2007. She is currently a Senior Biostatistician at Genentech (in South San Francisco).

SNACKS IN MH331B AT 2:30 PM

TALK STARTS AT 3 PM
